CUSTOMER SERVICE PRACTITIONER

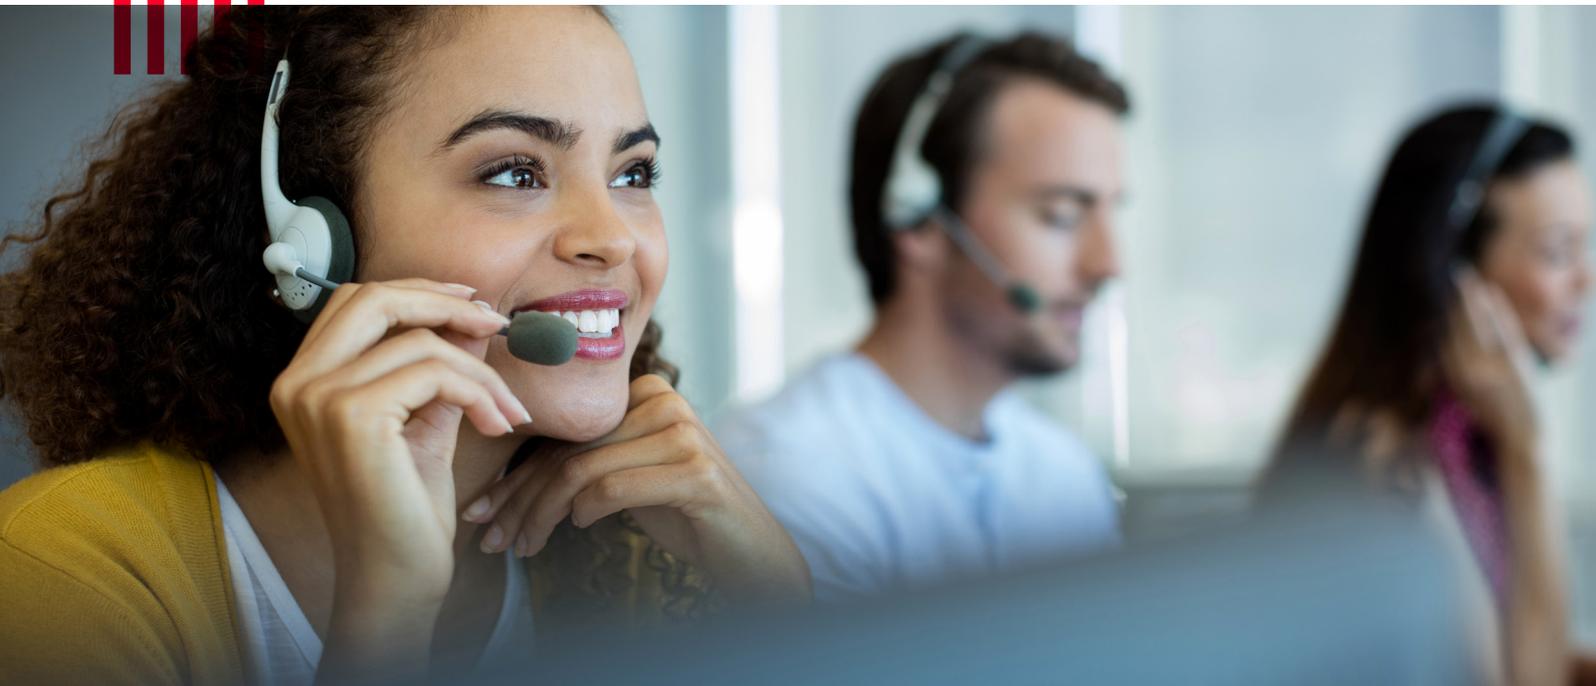

Providing customer service products and services for businesses and other organisations including face-to-face, telephone, digital and written contact and communications.

The Customer Service Practitioner Apprenticeship is aimed at emerging or current employees delivering high quality products and services to the customers of their organisation. Your core responsibility will be to provide a high quality service to customers which will be delivered from the workplace, digitally, or through going out into the customer's own locality.

You will develop knowledge and skills in understanding your customer, products, services, systems and resources as well as a range of customer interactions. Your development of skills and customer interactions may cover a wide range of situations and can include; face-to-face, telephone, post, email, text and social media.

The apprenticeship will also focus on key behaviours such as being agile, professional and inclusive, and being open to feedback, empowering you to be self-aware and develop a growth mind-set.

HOW WILL THE TRAINING BE DELIVERED?

This apprenticeship programme will focus on 3 areas of learning and development: Knowledge, Skills & Behaviours.

We have replicated what we have learnt on the pitch and applied it to the corporate world. We will embed our corporate athlete tactics, supporting your mental focus, physical capacity, emotional connectivity and aspirational alignment, allowing you to thrive in the most challenging circumstances.

HOME OR AWAY?

Delivery is within the workplace and at the home of your organisation, however you will be invited to masterclasses at our inspiration stadium or other similar sites, away.

It is expected that you will spend 20% of your contractual working hours undertaking learning and development. Reasonable time for training while at work should be given and may include reflection, mentoring and the development of new skills while at work.

HOW WILL I KNOW THE PROGRAMME IS RIGHT FOR ME OR MY COMPANY?

An advisor will discuss job roles, career aspirations and organisations' operational needs, to ensure the right level and programme is chosen. In addition, there will be an initial starting period of analysis, called a Flying Start, where advice and guidance may suggest a different learning path to excellence.

WILL THERE BE AN EXAM?

Yes, apprentices will be formally assessed at the end of their programme by an Independent Examiner. The assessment of competence will include a number of assessment methods, such as a competency based interview, practical observations, presentation, written exam, project or professional discussion. The exams may be conducted at the workplace or at another location.

ENGLISH AND MATHEMATICS

If you don't already hold GCSE level A*- E or equivalent in either of these subjects, your programme will include teaching and examination of level 1 Functional Skills. You will be required to achieve a Level 1 to complete your apprenticeship, and work towards a Level 2.

THE NEXT STEPS

Learners can progress onto an Advanced or Higher Apprenticeship in vocation expertise or in Team Leading.

Available courses:
Level 3 Customer Service Specialist, Level 3 Team Leading.
